

The Gorry Gallery

Photographs by Phillip Gorry taken in the Chittagong Hill Tracts of Bangladesh

Top:3 boys in Tripura village

Phillip Gorry is finishing his degree in History with minors in Anthropology and Latin American studies.

He also does economic research for his university in the United States and hopes eventually to work in micro-finance or development. His passion is travelling, which he does 3-4 months per year.

Tripura woman

Above: going down river

Below: hill home

Above: Tripura girl

Below: Just visible on the roof of the middle hut is a solar panel bought with United Nations funds

Above: woman selling flowers at market

Above: cooking area in bamboo dwelling

Right: woman smoking at market

